Working for the Lord Colossians 3:23	I feel guilty because I do not give my work my best efforts.			I work hard and don't feel guilty about it but I don't always see the point in what I do.			I mostly enjoy my work and know that it has purpose.			I look forward to each day's activities with excitement knowing God has a plan for it.
SCORE
Image of God Genesis 1:25	_			Some of the time I am working in my sweet spot and lose track of time but not too often.			Much of the time I am working in my unique ability but I still get pulled into things that I know I should say no to.			I get energized knowing I am working in my unique ability 80% of my time both personally and professionally.
SCORE
Cheerful Giver 2 Corinthians 9:7	•			I am learning to trust and flex my generosity muscles. I feel good when I give and want to give more.			I enjoy giving of my resources as I help others. I schedule and plan time and money for giving.			I enjoy and expect opportunity to use the resources regularly that God has put me in charge of.
